Step 4

If you think that we have not done everything we could have done to settle your complaint, you may want to contact a Member of Parliament. They may refer the matter to the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman (PHSO).

5

The four-step procedure is as follows.

Step 1

Please get in touch with the person in the section or office you have been dealing with. They may be able to solve your problem.

Step 2

If you are still not happy, write to:

Carole Evans
Customer Services Manager
DVLA
Swansea
SA7 0EE.

Email: www.direct.gov.uk/emaildvla

Fax: 01792 766416.

We aim to immediately confirm that we have received your complaint. The Customer Services Manager will make sure the responsible area sends a full reply within 10 working days. If it is going to take us longer than this to give you a full reply, we will let you know.

Step 3

If you are still not satisfied, write to:

Noel Shanahan
Chief Executive
DVLA
Swansea
SA6 7JL.

You need to provide full details of your complaint and the response you have received so far.

We aim to immediately confirm that we have received your complaint. The Chief Executive will make sure that the manager of the responsible area sends a full reply within 10 working days. If it is going to take us longer than this to give you a full reply, we will let you know.

If you feel that your complaint has not been handled properly, you can ask the Chief Executive to refer the matter to an Independent Complaints Assessor (ICA).

The ICA only looks at cases of poor service, incorrect advice or unreasonable delay. It is not their role to comment on policy matters or the law. It would therefore be helpful, if you could tell us why you think your case should be referred to the ICA.

Step 4

If you think that we have not done everything we could have done to settle your complaint, you may want to contact a Member of Parliament. They may refer the matter to the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman (PHSO).

5

Your feedback

We would welcome your comments on how we can continue to improve our processes. We may contact you for your views on how we handled your complaint.

Compensation

There may be times when mistakes cause extra expense or financial loss. In these cases we may consider paying you compensation. As we are funded by the Government, to protect public funds we must make sure we only pay justified claims. We usually need to see evidence to support your extra expense or financial loss.

The Disability Discrimination Act (DDA 1995)

We are committed to helping our disabled customers. If you need help, get in touch with us using your usual method of communication (for example, face-to-face or by phone, fax, textphone, email, CD or letter).

If you need a large-print version of this leaflet or want to ask about our other services for customers with disabilities, please write to:

Carole Evans
Customer Services Manager
DVLA
Swansea

Who are we?

We are the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency (DVLA), an executive agency of the Department for Transport (DfT). Our head offices are in Swansea. We also have a network of 39 local offices spread across Great Britain. We issue more than 7 million driving licences and 9 million registration certificates (V5C) each year. We also respond to more than 8 million enquiries from the police and 28.2 million enquiries from customers relating to driver licensing and registering vehicles.

Our standards of service

We will try to do the following.

- Send your driving licence to you within 15 working days of us receiving your application. (It may take longer if you have made a medical declaration.)
- Send your vehicle registration certificate (V5C) to you within 10 working days of receiving your application, or within 20 working days of receiving your application if you are applying to be the new keeper using form V62, 'Application for a vehicle registration certificate' or form V317 'Application to transfer or retain a vehicle registration number'.
- Send your vehicle tax refund within 30 working days of receiving your application.
- Answer phone calls received in our Customer Enquiries Group within 30 seconds.
- Reply to a letter within 10 working days.

What to do if things go wrong

We aim to always give you the best possible service.

Please tell us:

- when we do well
- when we fail to meet our service standards, and
- how we could improve our services.

If you want to make a complaint, there is a four-step procedure you should follow.

At each step you will need to give:

- your full name and address
- your date of birth or driver number (if your complaint is about your driving licence)
- your vehicle's registration number, make and model (if your complaint is about a vehicle)
- your daytime phone number (if possible), and
- full details of your complaint, including any previous dealings with us about it.

This information will help us to deal with your complaint fully.

Please note that although we will do everything possible to settle your complaint, there are some decisions we have to make by law. As a result, we may not always be able to meet your expectations.
